Philippine Consul Edgar Tomas Q. Auxilian attended the 25th Anniversary Celebration of the Agat Guamerica Lions Club held last Saturday, 18 March 2017 at the Pacific Star Resort and Spa Hotel in Guam.

The theme of the event was "Legacy in Service".

The event was attended by Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Guam Antonio Lamorena III, Senator Frank Aguon Jr. of the 34th Guam Legislature, representatives from sister Lions Clubs in the Philippines (from Quezon City and Sampaloc, Manila) and Japan as well as representatives of the other Lions Club chapters in Guam.

Agat Guamerica Lions Club is one of the more than 20 Lions Club chapters on Guam. It is headed by Ms. Annie Payne, a Filipino-American from Aklan province.

Among the main highlights of the event was the inspirational message of Ms. Atilana Rambayon that featured her McCool Gawad Kalinga Housing Project in Tarlac province and her involvement in the Habitat housing projects.

Judge Lamorena delivered a keynote message discussing the court jury system as a kind of citizen service for the community. -END-
